SEA AND SHORE.

Rats Destroyed Upon a Plague Ship.

Claudine Sails--Newcastle Colliers In Harbor--Island Shipping. Irmgard Out.

Crowded with Japanese immigrants between decks from Manilla's quarantine station, the Claudine sailed for Maui ports last evening. There were few other sailings of island steamers, as it is slow work getting the permitted freight on board. The schooner A. J. West and Golden Shore and ship Casarea, which had arrived in the offing on Wednesday, were towed into the harbor, and the British bark Adderly, with 1,800 tons of Newcastle coal, came through the channel during the afternoon. The sailing of the Nihau for Elele was postponed until this afternoon. There were a number of Japanese (free) passengers off the Lady Joyce landed last night, and the backmen of that nationality did a big business at the Mail wharf. The lumber schooner A. J. West commented discharging at the Ewa end of the Mail wharf in the afternoon. The coal vessels are all awaiting a berth in the stream. The barkentine Irmgard was the only deep-water vessel sailing yesterday. She goes to Hilo to load sugar for San Francisco. The departure of the United States steamer Westminister for Manilla has been postponed until next Monday. The bark Conway Castle, from Liverpool, commenced discharging cargo into the steamer Hawaii yesterday.

Rats and the Plague.

The steamer J. W. Taylor arrived in New York harbor last month with a lot of brown rats aboard which are causing the health authorities of the city a great deal of anxiety, even more than two cases of bubonic plague which the steamer took to New York from South American ports. Whether the plague spreads, depends upon the rats, says a New York paper. The physicians of the metropolis are at a loss what to do, and have appealed for help and suggestions in keeping the rats from leaving the steamship. Wherever the plague has appeared it has invariably been preceded by an epidemic among the rats. Bacteriologists have established the fact that the plague is actually spread by the rats, that it originates with them, and that it is probably from the insects which the rats harbor that the plague is transmitted to man. A proposal is made to fill the steamer Taylor with water and so drown the rats, as the only means of effectually getting rid of the dangerous pests. It was in India, in 1886, that the connection between rats and plague was first traced out.

MANILA PAPERS WAIL.

They Complain Because of Military Repression.

MANILA, Dec. 28.—The newspaper, Democracia, the organ of a section of Philippine opinion, has been ordered to suspend publication for a period of three months, for having published an article in its issue of December 27, which was considered to be a libel on the Philippine military authorities. The article, which was published in the Democracia, was a criticism of the military authorities, and was considered to be a libel on the Philippine military authorities. The article, which was published in the Democracia, was a criticism of the military authorities, and was considered to be a libel on the Philippine military authorities.

The paper has generally been a warm supporter of the administration. The provost marshal recently threatened to suppress it for publishing an editorial asserting that Manila streets were in a worse condition under the American than they had been under the Spanish administration. The Manila Times was also recently warned, with an intimation of imprisonment and confiscation for printing an editorial recommending the creation of a board of charity commissioners to control the charitable institutions, on account of rumors of mismanagement of the charitable funds by the church authorities. The newspaper, Democracia, bitterly attacked the authorities for a partial supervision, threatening suppression if they claim, for trifling errors in the publication of news not connected with public matters. They also say the censorship handicaps a newspaper enterprise by suppressing cable dispatches, received from respectable agencies, whose transmission is of an exceedingly costly character. The master suppressed included reports of government actions, among them being Philippine and American occurrences which might give the Filipinos an unfavorable opinion of the United States.

Deserting Our Harbor.

Two coasters sailed for the other islands for sugar cargoes yesterday, which they originally intended loading here—the schooner Robert Lewers for Koloa and the barkentine Irmgard for Hilo. They are the first of which may turn out to be the whole sugar fleet of 1900 to shun this unfortunate port for a healthier locality.
